

DigiSoft Terms of Service

1. Account Registration Users must provide accurate and complete information when creating accounts. Accounts are non-transferable and may not be shared with others.
2. Acceptable Use DigiSoft services may not be used for unlawful, fraudulent, harmful, or abusive purposes. Prohibited actions include hacking attempts, spamming, and violating intellectual property laws.
3. Service Availability DigiSoft aims for 99.9% uptime across its products. Scheduled maintenance windows will be announced at least 48 hours in advance. DigiSoft is not responsible for outages caused by third-party providers.
4. Payment and Billing Subscription fees are billed monthly or annually. Users must maintain valid payment methods. Failed payments may result in suspension of services.
5. Termination DigiSoft reserves the right to suspend or terminate accounts that violate these terms. Customers may cancel their subscriptions at any time through the account dashboard.
